

Speaking Beautiful English: Building Successful Lives

By Tom T Tofilon

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Speaking Beautiful English is a one-of-a-kind character and skills based approach for communicating in a global society that will not only touch your mind, but also your heart. This happens through 26 chapters of exemplary world-class role models, timeless truths, principles of cross-cultural awareness, and essential business/ leadership and conversational skills--for knowing what to say and how to express yourself appropriately in various situations. Speaking Beautiful English, through its balanced and comprehensive design, provides learners with knowledge of English and its cultural foundations, the skills of effective cross cultural communication, and the confidence needed to practice and use what is being learned. Through the modeling of instructors and practical classroom simulations, students will experience language learning that will transfer to the real world. Beyond these beautiful instructional elements, there is something of even greater beauty within every lesson. It is this aspect of Speaking Beautiful English that is the foundation for success in all of life--wisdom. Whereas learning English is a relatively new worldwide desire, the pursuit for wisdom has characterized people from all cultures...
