

Four Brains, Four Egos, and Many Minds: Understanding How We Think (Paperback)

By Jesus Laplume

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We are complex people who are destined to be great and powerful, especially when we work together for the common good. Because we don t understand how we are made, however, although that is a wonderful reality, we have been turned away from our Destiny to become Love, at least until recently. Many humans are finding ways to bring all of our component parts of our brains together into one functional being that is living in the set of thoughts and emotions called Love. We have four separate brains, developed over time as we evolved from reptiles, through two stages of mammalian evolution and, finally, developed a pre-frontal cortex that allowed us to think logically. We can use that last brain to not only be conscious, but self-conscious, as well as aware but also self-aware. These abilities allow us to do wonderful things, but also allow us to understand that we are mortal and that these bodies will die in time. Fortunately, we can also choose to learn that we are spiritual beings having a human experience, so that...
