Reviews

It is one of the best publications. It is definitely simplistic but exciting in the 50% in the ebook. I am very happy to let you know that this is basically the greatest publication I have ever gone through within my own existence and could be the greatest PDF for ever.

Excerpt from Monthly Biographical Magazine, Vol. 1: Containing Portraits and Memoirs of Distinguished Americans Now Living; December, 1852 In the year 1805, he was enrolled at Princeton as a member of the freshman class, being at that time and for months afterwards, the youngest student in the institution. From his first entrance into college, however, he was influenced by a steady ambition, and throughout his three years term always maintained a conspicuous position, which was crowned, on his graduation in 1808, with a high and well-deserved honor distinction. His first instruction in classical literature, while under the care of Dr. Staughton, had not been profound, but his tastes and habits, which had imbued him from his earliest youth with a strong love of reading, and induced him ardently to cultivate general literature and history, awakened in him a love for the great masters of Grecian and Roman poetry and eloquence, which increased in the progress of collegiate studies, and has been nourished and improved among the busy occupations of subsequent life. Under the care of resident Smith, a gentleman of accomplished manners, and a scholar who, with many elegant and varied attainments; had especially cultivated, and ably and successfully explained the moral and mental sciences; and of Dr. John McLean, the professor of chemistry and natural philosophy, who combined the Doric simplicity of his countryman Burns with the same spirit of accurate and searching inquiry into the truths of experimental science which had largely contributed to the fame of Professor Black, whose pupil in Scotland he had been, Mr. Coxe acquired, while at Princeton, a fondness for every branch of study and reflection connected...
