Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Essays on Woman s True Destiny: Responsibilities and Rights, as the Mother of the Human Race I do not think, gentlemen, I can offer you a greater mark of my high respect, for your noble and philanthropic characters, how far I consider you above the narrow selfish prejudices which govern society. I want to attract your attention on a subject, the most important, in the present times; for as Condorcet says, on the last page of his Sketch of an historical picture of the progress of the human mind, The next step in progress, is to restore woman to her rights and dignity. Open the eyes of woman. Let her know herself and her true destinies. Then she will cease to be a slave. Then man will be as anxious to cleanse his hands from the past, as woman to resume her natural position as the mother of mankind. Then man will cease to fear having something to lose (his dear domineering) in industrial and domestic association. Woman will easily perceive that it is the means for her to step into heir natural sphere, in both her sexual and maternal connections with man, which are perfectly subverted in the present state of society. But as long as woman thinks herself a pretty little thing, intended for the sexual gratification of man, whose entire duties and resources in this world are only to please him any how; she will be busy at making herself a pretty plaything, and nothing else. Then she will be made to believe any thing - that white is black and black is white! i.e. That you promulgate abominable principles, conducive to the overthrow, of the divine bonds...
