By the acceptance of the conditions of an act of the legislature of 1866 it passed under State patronage and control February 26, 1867. To and Agricultural Hall State Agricultural School, Randolph, Vt. including 1911, the year of its discontinuance, it sent out 1540 graduates from its lower course, and 193 graduates from the higher course of study, most of whom have taught in the public schools. In 1911 the State Agricultural School was opened in this building. 15. State School Of Agriculture.--By act of the General Assembly of 1910, the Normal School at Randolph Center ceased June 30, 1911, and the property passed over to the trustees of the State School of Agriculture, which had acquired land and a dormitory and opened the school September 26, 1911, with 52 students. The school has continued to have a large patronage and, has proved a valuable institution to the State. 16. University Of Vermont.--The University of Vermont was chartered in 1791. Its first class entered in 1800 and was graduated in 1804. The college building was occupied for military purposes and college work was suspended during a part of the war of 1812. In 1824 the college building was burned. The corner stone of a new building was laid the next year by General Lafayette. The medical department, first established in 1821 and afterwards suspended, was revived in 1853. The Vermont Agricultural College was...
