

The Plague of Liberalism

By Dennis J Marcellino

Lighthouse Publishing, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Liberal, top musician eventually discovers that liberalism is harmful . and changes his views! The Plague Of Liberalism spells out the history and reasons for the moral, ethics and mental health decline in the U.S. in the last 40 years. Statistics are used to confirm this decline. This book also gives solutions to how it can be reversed - both on a societal and a personal level. It shows how liberalism is out of harmony with, and actually harmful to, nature and compassion - both of which it ironically claims to champion. And it shows how its propaganda is not based on truth, and (based on the author's expertise in addiction) how its most vocal proponents suffer from a psychological disease, which the author calls freedom addiction. He says this disease has reached plague proportions. The author is an ex liberal, having been a hippie in San Francisco during the 60s and 70s and a member of some very famous music groups - Sly The Family Stone, The Tokens (famous for The Lion Sleeps Tonight), and...
